

Clive Alcock Biography – Change Works

Clive Alcock is the founder of Change Works Consulting, offering over 25 years of experience assisting many of Australia's leading organisations to address a variety of business transformation, change management, and organisational development opportunities.

The Change Works Consulting Group (previously NLP Corporate) is a boutique consulting firm that specialises in working with people and organisations to initiate, implement, and sustain effective solutions for change. Clive has worked in the following positions and organisations:

THE CHANGEWORKS CONSULTING GROUP (2004 - Present)

Positions Included: Principal Management Consultant; Change Management Lead; Organisation Development Specialist; Business Transformation Leader.

DELOITTE CONSULTING (1997 - 2003)

Positions Included: People Management Director; CRM Project Director; Senior Change Manager; Organisation Performance Manager; Management Consultant.

PARKE DAVIS / WARNER LAMBERT (1991 - 1996)

Positions Included: Training & Development Manager; Employee Development Manager; Senior Human Resources Manager (Sales & Marketing).

BHP - SLAB & PLATE PRODUCTS DIVISION (1982 - 1989)

Positions Included: Organisation Development Principal; Senior OD Consultant; Training & Development Specialist; HR Professional; Independent Contractor.

Clive's extensive management consulting experience is by a post graduate qualification in Change Management; a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology; and supporting Diploma in Adult Education (Training) and, graduate certificates in Human Resource Management and NLP.

Please CONTACT US at enquiry@changeworks.com.au to learn more about Clive can assist you today.

